'Stanhill': Designer's Own Deco Icon

The exquisite, Art Deco and Tudor charms of this designer's own, triple brick, 1930s apartment have been tastefully updated by the renowned Cameron Comer of Comer and King design agency and has been variously featured in a selection of publications including Real Living and Sunday Life. Brilliantly conceived and perfectly executed, the home's lounge/dining room is an impressive and unforgettable room, rendered in black and highlighting original north-facing windows that frame leafy first floor outlooks, whilst the master bedroom is a huge space - large enough for a desk and filled with northerly light. Accessed securely via intercom entry, the home also offers the rare treat of two secure undercover parking spaces. Nestled between Albert Park and Fawkner Park and metres from St.Kilda Rd, you can combine superior urban convenience with amazing outdoor recreation and easy city access.
