

Delightful, Al fresco Haven

Offering a most delightful indoor-outdoor connection, this bright and airy, three bedroom villa unit is a beautifully presented and peaceful haven that feels like a low maintenance house with first class lifestyle or investment credentials in a superb bayside position. Enriched by high ceilings, polished timber floors and concertina doors opening to the north, the open-plan kitchen/meals/living delivers a remarkable sense of spaciousness with premium stainless steel appliances. Also featuring robes in the bedrooms and a remote access lock-up garage with direct internal access to the main home, as well as a European laundry and reverse cycle air conditioning. Just around the corner from some terrific cafes, restaurants and shops on Highett Rd, as well as a city-bound trains, buses and only a few minutes from Southland Shopping Centre, this is a location you can fall in love with.
