2/11 Cheel Street
Armadale

Vast, Blue Ribbon, High Street Hub

This impressively large, three bedroom apartment presents buyers with the dual attractions of outstanding investment returns and easy cosmetic improvability to reap some serious rewards and capitalise on its outstanding location. Basically presented in comfortable working order, the kitchen / meals is large and semi-attached to a generous lounge / dining with a balcony and beautiful leafy outlooks, whilst the bedrooms are also spacious genuine doubles. With carport parking, secure intercom entry and parquetry floors, there is plenty here to work with and the future is as bright as the home's glorious north-eastern orientation. Enjoying a blue ribbon position of enduring market appeal, the home promises an irresistible café lifestyle, ridiculously easy city access via Armadale Train Station which is within walking distance and an easy tram ride along High St to immerse yourself in all that Chapel St has to offer.
