Tranquil Retreat is a Rare Privilege

As it overlooks its beautifully landscaped communal gardens, this state-of-the-art, one bedroom apartment is incredibly removed from the street, deep within the renowned 'Halo' building and offers an almost surreal sense of sanctuary in this vibrant location. A rare treat in the cosmopolitan inner suburbs, this as new home has been crafted for quality with a stunning, Miele-equipped and stone kitchen/meals/living and a superb balcony that overlooks the calming tranquility of communal gardens. Incredibly secure with video entry, basement parking, storage cage and elevator access, the home also offers a vogue bathroom/laundry and robes in the bedroom. Positioned on the 'Paris end' of Fitzroy St, directly opposite Albert Park Lake and with the waterfront at the bottom of the street, you will love going for a leisurely stroll to find new local cafes, restaurants and bars, plus you have public transport nearby as well.
