Instant Lifestyle Appeal, Scope to Update

Opposite a park and nestled within a tranquil leafy location just moments from the fabulous restaurants and shops on Chapel Street, Windsor station and High St trams, this inviting solid brick, Victorian residence's impeccably presented light-filled spaces deliver instant lifestyle appeal with added scope to further update and extend if desired (STCA). The traditional arched hallway introduces a sun-drenched living/dining room with kitchen opening to a private north garden. The unique side laneway offers enormous scope and possibility to what already offers both present day and future appeal.
