Refurbished and North-Facing Al Fresco Villa

With its own street frontage to Argyle Road, this fantastic two-bedroom residence oriented to the north enjoys a wonderfully spacious and light-filled al fresco flow. Combining cool clean lines with a welcoming space that radiates warmth, the home has been refurbished and requires no up-keep. A large and modern kitchen with stone benches that include a breakfast bar, overlooks a generous north-facing lounge and dining area opening out to the courtyard for a seamless indoor-outdoor connection. Equipped with central heating and cooling, the home also offers carport parking, a modern European laundry, huge robes in the bedrooms and a large family bathroom that is separate to the WC. This incredibly convenient location is well serviced by transport and offers you easy access to the supermarket, local cafes, shops and restaurants, as well as both Kew Junction and Camberwell Junction for an even wider selection of amenities.
