Parkside Family Oasis

Exacting design and construction by Nick McKimm has created a large family home like no other. North-facing, well-zoned and bordering Plantation Reserve, this has everything families need and love. The fine design starts outside, with a water garden on show from the luxe parents' retreat. Three expansive living zones are spread over two levels, and the generous family room has pool and parkland views. Bespoke design is first-class, with five bedrooms and three bathrooms, large kitchen with butler's pantry, cabana, park access and extensive storage. Feature-rich fitout, metres to Lucas St Reserve, and near many schools.
