

Attractive Design, Expansive Proportions

In a charming street that maintains peace and quiet yet is just moments from Bay Street, this three-bedroom abode encompasses expansive interiors beyond anticipation behind an attractive and traditional façade. Comprising open-plan living complemented by a courtyard with an edible garden and a contemporary kitchen with European appliances. A spacious ground-floor bedroom features built-in robes and shelving, with an adjacent study nook and bathroom/laundry. The first-floor features two light-filled bedrooms with built-in robes and views with city sights, a well-appointed bathroom and ample roof-top storage.
