Robin Boyd beauty, Yarra Valley views

On the edge of the Yarra Valley commanding sweeping ranges views, the Blott House (1956) is innovative Robin Boyd-designed brilliance of magnificent mid-Century authenticity amidst expansive Ellis Stones' inspired garden. Introduced by a striking window-wall façade, this sensational modernist residence is a remarkable discovery on 1,965 sq. metres (approx.) with a massive rear garden offering infinite space for sympathetic extension and pool. Easily accessing wineries, the city and amenities, this beautifully composed home features lounge (OFP) and dining areas, upstairs living, study or 3rd bedroom, 2 large downstairs bedrooms, updated kitchen, 2 bathrooms, ducted heating, alfresco terrace and garage.
