A Family Delight in the Heart of It All

A Family Delight in the Heart of It All

Proudly majestic and perfectly placed, adore the period allure and generous spaces found within this double-brick Californian Bungalow. Soaring ceilings, polished floorboards and large open fireplaces achieve remarkable warmth through the formal dining and stately study with sunny sitting room.

Enjoy playing a multitude of sports on the custom half-court, streaming inside to the generous open-plan family room, meals and large country-style kitchen with stainless steel appliances. Appreciate the abundance of space with a retreat, four double bedrooms, three bathrooms, double auto garage and ample parking. Fitted with ducted heating and multiple split system air-conditioners.

Situated on a large 732sqm (approx.) block close to South Camberwell Village, trams, train, primary schools and prestigious private schools, there is potential to renovate or redevelop in the future (STCA).
